Spice Up Sundays with the Flamenco Brunch at La Fougasse

Discover the Mediterranean through cuisine and music at Sofitel Minneapolis

What: Sofitel Minneapolis spices things up every Sunday with its popular Flamenco Brunch. From 10:30 am – 2:30 pm, Sofitel's private dining room La Fougasse heats up with a variety of delicious Spanish-influenced dishes created by executive chef Serge Devesa. Guests take an adventure to the Mediterranean Sea with a festive brunch featuring Flamenco music and dancers.

Patrons can sit inside and enjoy the Flamenco dancers perform from 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., or dine on Sofitel's stylish patio complete with a vibrant red and yellow color scheme, fresh flowers, a fresh herb garden and a water fountain.

Chef Serge Devesa's Sunday brunch features delicious Spanish menu items such as Paella Valenciana, Seafood "Salpicon," and Crema Catalana. To top off the flavorful brunch, guests will receive complimentary Sangria.

Why: Flamenco Music and Dance goes perfectly with the Mediterranean cuisine because both are expressions of a vibrant culture that is rich with flavor, sounds and passion for all the senses.

Flamenco is a Spanish musical genre with strong, rhythmic undertones that combines acoustic guitar playing, singing, dancing and handclapping. Flamenco dancers express their emotion and passion with vigorous movements, twists and turns.

Who: Flamenco artist Michael Hauser is one of a handful of flamenco guitar masters residing in the United States today. Hauser, along with other Flamenco artists, perform at Sofitel Minneapolis on Sundays.

When: Sundays (excluding Holidays)
Brunch: 10:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.
Flamenco Dancers: 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
